

FISITA is a highly respected international membership organisation, originally established in 1948, that today provides a range of services for the automotive and mobility systems engineering community, and in doing so reaches over 200,000 engineers around the world.

FISITA activities are delivered in accordance with our Vision statement:

'Promoting Excellence in Mobility Engineering'

The operation of FISITA activities is conducted through a UK registered company, FISITA (UK) Ltd, which is based in Stansted, England. The staff team works with a large network of member-volunteers around the world who engage in the delivery of all membership activities.

Recently the FISITA (UK) Ltd Board approved the creation of one additional non-executive board position aligned with expertise in human resource.

The new Board member will be required to:

- Support the CEO and Board with all strategic and operational HR related activities
- Support FISITA's Investors in People framework approach and continuous improvement as a progressive employer
- Support continuous development of FISITA people, our culture, staff wellbeing, retention, compensation and succession planning
- Support the drive for continuity and development in human resource best practice and compliance

FISITA (UK) Ltd now invites applications from interested individuals and is seeking to identify suitably qualified candidates for appointment.

Applicants will be:

- Experienced in human resource and ideally currently in position within a similar organisation to FISITA, or able to demonstrate an appreciation of the membership organisation sector
- Able to contribute strategically as a non-executive director across a wide range of issues and be a collaborative team player
- Demonstrably astute with a proven track record of sound judgement and effective decision making
- Have an understanding and acceptance of the legal duties, responsibilities and liabilities at board level

Time Commitment: The role will involve attending quarterly Board meetings, some ongoing work between meetings, plus preparation time.

This is an unpaid, non-executive position, although reasonable travel costs will be supported

For an informal discussion regarding your interest or nomination of a colleague for this opportunity please email FISITA (UK) Ltd Chief Executive, Chris Mason via c.mason@fisita.com